Customer Reviews

I really like this series. Love how the characters mature and grow from one book to the next. Love the plots(yes, i am a horror fan) and i love a good mystery book. I also love the fact that i can read the books in a box set without spending too much money. Willow Rose's writing has grasped my attention and i will be reading more books by her in the future.

I love how the books read. I never knew what was going to happen and I hated putting them down, I wanted to keep reading. I really felt the emotions of Emma Frost. Every time I thought I knew who the killer was I was wrong which is cool. I like that you had to wait til the very end to see who it was and then I was like what? I would go back and see if I missed something and nope.

Loved Emma Frost Mystery Series: Vol 1-5, Willow Rose is todays Stephen King, Dean Koontz, ECT . Can't put her stories down, I loved every book of hers so far ! You won't be disappointed.

Not typically a thriller reader , but these were engaging and had terrific plots and plenty of twist. I will continue to read on in this series as she keeps to the important concept and doesn't try to fill pages up with necessary gore.

This is the first of Willow Rose novels I've read and I have mixed feelings about the stories. The writing style was fairly good but the subject matter was sometimes too violent. The plots were intricate yet almost unbelievable. I did stick with the series and did appreciate how the books segued one story to the next. Ms. Rose has quite an imagination!!

The stories were good reading and held my interest all the way thru. Would recommend to mystery readers that enjoy good story lined.

lot of spelling errors in all volumes

Interesting reads in the way they are presented with the timelines. Emma's son, Victor, is presented as possibly Autistic, but there is way more going on with him, very interested to see what develops with him. Over all a pretty good mystery set. I will read more Emma Frost books.
