Synopsis

Ciyrus has never felt so out of control of his emotions ever in his life. He hates losing control and finds his newly reformed temper to be agonizing. He can't sleep and is exhausted, but has a feeling something big is on the horizon. When the new journalist Eliana shows up, he quickly learns why he was a basket case. She's his mate. The tiny woman has walls like no other, and as he fights to get her to trust him things heat up. He's finally happy for the first time in his life, but after their first and only night together he wakes up to find her missing. She's been taken by the Klimnu, and he gets a ringside seat to her torture. Eden can feel her too, but it's too risky to let her help. It's up to him and the other warriors to figure out where they are keeping his mate before it's too late. Will they find her before she disappears from him forever? This book contains mature themes and language, only suitable for ages 18+!

Customer Reviews

Number three in the series, this develops the relationship between Cirys and Eliana, a journalist friend of Eden's. As well as brings more light into the Klimnu culture and why they are harming the Denynso people especially their human female mates. Cirys is considered the saints among the clan brothers. Where Pyra is hot-headed, Cirys is calm and collected. So when Cirys becomes short tempered, easily agitated, and cannot focus on his healing, everyone worries that something is wrong. Especially Eden because she can feel his anguish through their bond. Then through the bond they both feel something different and that is when Cirys realizes that his mate has landed on Uoria, and as luck would have it.. she is Eden's good friend. They get to know one another and Eliana has a lot of layers to her that he slowly begins to peel away and then she is stolen from him. I doubt Cirys will be able to keep his calm collected attitude for long...

This was a very fast read. I thought I had ordered the ten book set. After finishing this I went back to to get that set. Just when I got into the book it was over, really only about thirty minutes or less to read.

Great series, once you read one you want to know what happens next. Keeps getting better and better the more you read. If you're interested in this type of story then you can't go wrong with this set of books

I loved reading this book, can't wait for more from this author and this series.

I had the first four books of the series but I read them again when I bought the set of ten. I love this series. I love the author and I can't wait to read the other series. They are such a wonderful read.

I like genre. I did not like the story.

I love this series!! Just when you think you have figured it out, you are thrown for another loop!! You have romance, action, adventure along with a truly entertaining storyline and characters. I give you highlights but why when you can check it out for yourself!!

I would love to duplicate some authors and this is one of them loves the book, and love the series. You think you have things figured out and what's going to happen and then a curve ball appears .KEEP UP THE WRITING.
