I just got a new Teacup Yorkie about 2 months ago and have been having a really difficult time training him. He's so cute but just so... maybe "bad" isn't the right word. But he's very active and doesn't like to listen very much. This book is full of tips and advice that really, really work, and I must say that after following some of this advice, my little baby Yorkie is already showing signs of improvement in his behavior. I'm convinced that if I stick to the methods in this book, he'll be perfectly trained in no time at all. I truly can't wait to see what the future holds!

Recently me and my husband adopted a small puppy and we had some hard time training it. I must say that this guide has been from immense help for us since it gave us the right instructions how to act with the puppy. Just like the title says we became real pros in dog training and we decided to get one more dog. I definitely recommend this book to everybody who has or wants a dog!
