Hajjah Hajjah: A Sister's Guide To Completing The Hajj And Umrah

Synopsis

After completing Hajj in October 2012, Hajjah Shahidah made it her sole mission to encourage other women, young and old, to make the Hajj. After researching several books on making the Hajj and Umrah, she felt it necessary to produce a book especially for women. Hajj is not only a spiritually fulfilling journey, it is also a life changer! This book is dedicated to every woman who has the sincere intention of making Hajj and fulfilling her religious duties. I only pray that you will benefit from all that is good within this book and share with others. Shahidah I.S. Hazziez is the 2012 Young Adult achievement awardee (Muslim Journal), an aspiring authoress, community activist, wife, mother, and friend who is inspired to help others.

Customer Reviews

This book is a "must have" for any sister planning to make the pilgrimage. Unlike other hajj books that provide great and useful information but are boring and a bit overwhelming, Shahidah talks to the reader as if she's your friend. She manages to take the complexities of the hajj rites and break them down for a non-scholar sister. This is very important as hajj is expensive and one may never be able to perform it again so you want to ensure all of the rites have been performed properly in accordance with the Qur'an and Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him. She also gives you the inside scoop on shopping in the Middle East and performing other rites that are not associated with hajj or umrah (but beneficial nonetheless). I love that the book is an easy read and small enough to fit into your everyday travel bag, so if you forget a du'a or need quick information, you can reference her book. The information is up-to-date as Shahidah performed the hajj in October 2012, and as a 2009 hajjah, I can confirm that everything she wrote is the 100% truth.

I watched her blog on YouTube she is a very inspirational young muslimah..... great book

I would recommend it for "All" sisters planning to make Hajj. I will use it when I make my plan to complete Hajj.

Bismillah It is with great pleasure and gratefulness to Allah (SWT) to review your book, Hajjah Hajjah! Your Dad, Haneef would be just as proud of you as I am smiling at what you have accomplished. What a blessing. This book has planted a seed in my heart to return to Mecca once again to experience the Hajj rites unlike I did in 1980. I was so young in Islam and was not aware that Medina would be one of the places we could go. I wish to return to complete that part of my journey! Thanks for writing this book. It was beautiful and very inspiring. I will always be thankful to Allah(SWT) for answering my prayers on Mount Arafat and blessing me with you! Love, Mom Sisters, copy this book Hajjah Hajjah, by Shahidah Hazziez. I had so many questions (what if this, what if that. My parents helped as much as they could with them fulfilling their pilgrimages 2x's; then the rest was up to me), some were answered before going, her book puts a lot of things into perspective. May Allah, (swt) reward her by doing what others have done, but through a younger sister's voice. Her insight made it a fun read, for all generations to relate to, the enthusiasm gives you the desire to go for the first time, or to go once again.
