Guy Martin: Worms To Catch

Synopsis

"I was never going to sleep in and take it easy, there were worms to catch." In August, 2015, Guy Martin crashed out of the lead of an Ulster Grand Prix superbike race held on the world's fastest racetrack. He had invasive surgery to bolt his broken spine and hand back together, and within days he decided he needed some time away from road racing. But he wasn't about to take it easy . . . In his brand new book, discover how Britain's favorite daredevil fills his time when road racing is taken out of the equation. He set about breaking records on the world's biggest Wall of Death, cycling 2,745 miles across the length of the United States (while sleeping rough), attempting to be the fastest person ever on two wheels, and traveling to Latvia to investigate his family's roots. There's some thrilling racing too, including wild Harley choppers on dirt and turbo-charged Transit vans through the Nevada desert. And there's the day job to get back to in North Lincolnshire – the truck yard and the booty van.

Customer Reviews

Guy Martin is a professional truck mechanic who has won multiple international road races and scored 15 Isle of Man TT podiums. He is a regular face on primetime Channel 4, presenting critically acclaimed documentaries and travelogues, as well as his popular returning series Speed with Guy Martin. He is also the author of two memoirs.

I love to read books from Guy, they are entertaining and interesting. His style of writing is very nice to read. Thanks to Guy for his books.

Great yarn by Guy again. A very interesting and unique fellow that meets a challenge head on.

the book looks fun, but I never received a copy, will have to try again.
