Great book

Winning the Teacher's Heart was a great read that I couldn't stop reading till I completed the story. This book is the first one in The Donnelley Brothers series by Jean C. Gordon. Jared Donnelley has returned to his home town, Paradox Lake. Jared had left town to pursue his motocross racing and to get away from his alcoholic father. Becca Norton is awed with his return as she recalled her high school crush on Jared. Jared returns home to build a motocross track and school for trouble children. He was met with opposition and even Becca's ex-in-laws were against him, which created more problems for her. Will Jared be able to fulfill his dream? Will the former sheriff continue to stir up trouble because he had a grudge against Jared's father? Read this fantastic story that is filled with well developed characters, which I fell in love with. Characters that are faced with realistic life issues that caused heartaches, grudges, determination, faith, forgiveness and new opportunities to show their true character despite the past. I look forward to reading rest of this series and thankful I have the books already instead of having to wait for a few months for them to be released. Jean C. Gordon definitely creates an amazing read with true to life issues for the characters along with romance being weaved between the hero and heroine.

Winning the Teacher's Heart is a fabulous book. Author Jean C. Gordon has written such a wonderful storyline that I was totally involved with the characters and with what was happening. There are quite a few characters but I had no problem in distinguishing each one. I really enjoyed reading this book and this is my first book to read by Author Jean C. Gordon. Winning the Teacher's Heart is a Harlequin Love Inspired book and I recommend reading this book. I believe you will truly enjoy reading this book and I'm looking forward to this author's next book. I received a complimentary copy from the author in exchange for my honest review. This review is one hundred percent my opinion.

Jared Donnelly has returned to his home town after being away for fifteen years, riding the motocross circuit after some troubled and tough teenage years. He has an idea for helping troubled youths as well as helping the local economy, but will his idea get shot down by the town council? Upon his return, he runs into an old crush of his from high school, Becca Norton. Once he spends some time with her, he realizes he still has feelings for her. Becca Norton is a high school teacher and divorced mother of two children. Her finances are not in the best shape so she is forced to work at the church day care over the summer to earn extra money. The pastor's wayward brother has returned home with plans to build a motocross school with a racetrack practically in Becca's backyard. Becca secretly had a crush on Jared in high school, but never told anyone. Now, as she sees him so mature and wanting to give back to the community as well as follow God's plan for his life, she wants to have a relationship with him. As the newest member of the town council, will she vote against Jared's plans to placate her ex-in-laws who are threatening her with a child custody battle? Becca struggles with her decision, but relies on God to provide the answer. These Love Inspired books are great for when readers have a little time, but not a lot. They are short, usually around 200 pages, and easy to read. The lessons evident in this particular story are forgiveness, taking our problems to the Lord first and not as a last resort and doing what is right in His sight to name a few. I have several more of these enjoyable reads that I look forward to sharing with you soon.

What a beautiful cover! It only gives you a glimpse at the sweet story hidden inside the pages. Jean C. Gordon and Love Inspired have released the first in the Donnelly Brothers series, Winning the Teacher's Heart. Wow, what a great romance! The author weaves words together to literally bring the story to life. The characters have flaws, but that's what makes them more real. I loved getting to know Jared and Becca. Jared left town years ago and has recently returned wanting to prove he's more than people think. He's ready to put down roots and his one desire is to open a motocross race track. He assumes once everyone hears his plans that they will immediately be excited and support his plans. Just one problem, Jared left his hometown under a dark cloud and his exploits on the motocross racing circuit haven't helped matters. Becca Norton is a divorced mother of two, young children and a history teacher at the local high school. She remembers Jared from high school and his brother, Connor, is her minister. She sees that Jared is excited about his plans, but she has reservations about the race track. Of course her ex father-in law wants to shut it down completely and with Becca being on the zoning committee he thinks it's a done deal. This is a touching story about two people that are reminded over and over again to trust in the Lord in all things. Faith is a hard sometimes when the past keeps haunting us. The characters weave their way into your hearts from page one and will keep you turning the pages. This is a sweet romance interwoven with some humor. I would recommend it to anyone. I received this book from the author for a honest review without bias or outside influence as stated above.
