I have really enjoyed these Star Justice books. This is disconnect your brain and enjoy the story space opera. The action is good and well written without bogging down in minutia. I look forward to more of this series. I have to admit that there have been a few surprises in the story that I was not expecting. I like that Adam is considerate of the women, despite the fact that he could have all four in his bed. Not many men would be able to resist four beautiful women throwing themselves at him because he is concerned with hurting their feelings. Adam with his harem could be the basis of many male fantasies, and I am surprised that the author, who writes other very explicit fiction, did not go there. One of the things I don't like though is we are four books in and Adam still has not been laid once. I do not think this is really feasible, even with as good a guy as Adam is. With four beautiful women, a couple who like to tease him, and especially Zea who was all over him in the last book, I would expect Adam to have a very short fuse. I've been on deployment where soldiers had to go anywhere from 13 - 15 months without any relief other than masturbation. We abstained not necessarily or entirely by choice, but because we were stuck out in the desert with no available women. By the actions of my fellow soldiers without any physical love for that long, I think Adam would be in much worse shape. Adam sounds like he has not had sex in years, and I think he should be ripping shelves off the wall, and snapping at everyone. In some ways it is true that love tames the beast.

Another good book. But I'll admit I was about to call a certain woman evil and wish her dead. You've brought more knowledge of this universe to the table and I like what I've seen. Hurry and let Adam bang his harem or women. This pansy foot stuff is for the birds. He is a tiger man. In real life they'd have all had nightly orgies let's not lie about it. So hustle tiger man and stop being a pussy cat for real.... ha! But good book. Keep it up.

Books 1 thru 3 were really good, Book 4 got a bit "spacey" for me. I enjoyed the series so far and look forward to more of this story. Won't spoil story by expanding on plot, lot of reviewers do so. These are just enjoyable reading of folks who shouldn't be, but are out to do good.

A good read. The story is interesting, characters are gaining depth and action sequences are more believable. Single male captain with a crew of beautiful women is a bit cliché, but he's hinted he will be dealing with that. Over all, the best so far in a series that is really starting to take off.

This series has grown on me. I like the twists and the future theme. Our heroes are tracking a lead their ship's intellect gave them. It has led to a planet with no one home and an abandoned city. Another megacorporation shows up and tries to take what they can.

At least one does. One of the things I have enjoyed about this series is that Mr. Earle has made sure each of these books has distinct and separate plots which wind around the over-riding basic premise of the story. It seems to me deftly done.

i love this series. i like the twist this book took at the end--it's good to have a specific enemy. i feel that this series is getting better and better and has plenty of room to go. I'm praying that the author continues.

A new level of badassery has emerged! I love that even with all the tech available to the crew, it still came down to the teeth and claws at the end. I'm also interested in seeing how the crazy love issue plays out!!!
