Customer Reviews

The book is excellent. I had an issue with The Salvation Army who sold the book. It had a price sticker on the cover which I was never able to completely remove, and this book sits on my coffee table. The Salvation Army did offer to allow me to return and reimburse me for the book, but I paid such a low price for it ($1.99), that I just let it go. They are aware of the issue and I'm sure they'll be aware of such things in the future.

I actually bought the AUDIO version of BROTHER WOLF. I listened to it and was amazed at the thoughts and insights. This book was written BEFORE wolves were reintroduced into Yellowstone. I was especially won over by the descriptions of the relationships of wolf and man and the relationship with the ravens. I enjoyed it so much, I decided to purchase the book as a gift for someone. I knew the author was a photographer but I guess I totally forgot about the fact that there might be PICTURES. When the book came, I was enthralled with this icing on the cake. So of course, I'm keeping the book and ordering another for the gift.

Jim Brandenburg succinctly captures the essence of the wolf. The wolf has been so unfairly persecuted throughout our history; due on no small part to ranchers. Incredible photographs, this book will make you a wolf lover if you aren't already. Incredible text and photos!!!!
