The Dragon's Breath (Aboard The Great Iron Horse Book 3)

Synopsis

Four Stars: " jam packed action... kept me feeling engaged and wondering what would happen next."- ReviewFive Stars: "Awesome, fabulous, intriguing..." Goodreads ReviewFour Stars: "Impressive descriptions and characters... the tinge of romantic fervour breathing freshness into a city burdened with the fear of a dragon's deadly breath." - ReviewDESCRIPTION:As the Iron Horse journeys ever deeper into its mysterious post-apocalyptic world, the crew encounters a lone knight on a quest to slay a dragon. They mock him at first, but when they arrive at the fog-shrouded city known as Stormwatch, the streets are abandoned, the doors are locked, and the citizens are terrified to leave their homes. One old woman, alone and seemingly insane, confronts the crew with this ominous warning: "Beware the dragon's breath!"They hear the knight's words echoed in her statement, and begin to realize that things may not be as they appear. Then, as night closes in, strange things begin to happen aboard the Iron Horse. Crew members are attacked by invisible beings and strange, mutated creatures. One by one, they begin to vanish. When it seems things can't get any worse, they realize their adventure has only just begun... and that maybe, just maybe, dragons really do exist.Book 3: The "Iron Horse" series is a follow up to Sedgwick's best-selling steampunk series, "The Tinkerer's Daughter." A reading of the earlier books is not necessary to enjoy this new series, but may provide added insight to certain characters and history.

Customer Reviews

From Breeze as a young girl to River, her maturing young daughter, Socrates, Kale and Micah, the stories intertwine and grow a lifetime in a few chapters. The two series are well written and thought out, bringing a fun twist to another world that very well could exist. I would love to read the backstory on Micah next.

I literally couldn't put this book down. The excitement keeps growing. Twists and turns and dragons oh my. I am starting the next in the series right now.

This is a pretty good series. I've enjoyed reading it and have been looking forward to the next installment as I finish each book.

The tinkers and now the iron horse series is a great read I love them. Yes they are easy read but highly fun and the punk syfy make them even more fun. If you have not read any of the start with the first thinker daughter and read from the beginning how this world is working an you will fall in love with this dangerous world and with it charming and evil people. This kind of punk syfy don't have complicated or mystical power all is easy to understand. Read them and enjoy the life and dead of them all.

Really enjoyed this series, this is basically book 6 in the series, can not wait to download the Book, this has been an out trip so far

I loved this book and this series just keeps me asking, "what's next". This has been one detailed adventure for anyone who loves a good fantasy. This author has become one of my favorites! This has been my second series that you've enticed me into reading and I will continue. Love your work, now on to the next adventure !Thanks,Lynn

What a great steam punk fantasy! After reading the three books in The Tinkerer's Daughter followed by the first three books in the Iron Horse series (the two series are related), I still wished for more - and then realized there is another Iron Horse book. YAY! And I already have it in my digital library. DOUBLE YAY!

Great steam punk novel
