Synopsis

Murder!: Life imitates art in this chilling tale of a wannabe filmmaker who set out to imitate his hero â€” the TV character, Dexter. The Stepmother from Hell: What kind of a monster would torture a 6-year-old amputee and cancer survivor? Black Widows of Hollywood: The barely believable tale of a couple of elderly women who targeted the homeless in a callous murder-for-profit scheme. ## Customer Reviews

Great book, 12th in a Series. Each featuring 18 Interesting Murder Cases. This book was Great, just like the first 11 in the Series

I have bought all of the murder most vile books by Robert Keller and they all have very interesting stories. He is an excellent writer and I recommend his books.

I love the stories in this book. Excellent writing ! One of my favorite true crime authors ! Check it out!

Great book, and Mr. Keller writes exceedingly well. This is a definite page turner.

Excellent true crime book

Mr. Keller has compiled another smorgasbord of true crime stories for your delectation. The book contains 18 tasty tales of crime and punishment. I have long been fascinated by the Frankie-and-Johnny story of Ruth Ellis. In my mind, Ruth was a lady who didn't get treated like one. Had the timing been different, we could have been friends. I think she needed a friend, someone to tell her she did a good job. If I had proofread this book, I would have corrected 12 errors.

Another 18 gruesome, harrowing stories. As always, well written and engrossing. I think I read them all in the course of two days.

I love this series of books by Robert Keller. Although, some of the cases I already knew of. Keep them coming...
