Whiskey Justice: A Tom Whiskey Mystery

Synopsis

Tom Whiskey tries to live life by the book. Sometimes. When private investigator Tom Whiskey is offered a bag full of cash to work for sly motivational speaker Patrick Walker, he is in no position to refuse. Patrick needs to find a missing safe, but it quickly becomes evident that the safe contains a lot more than just money. Challenged by a criminal priest, a drug dealer, and a thieving volunteer, Tom must work hard to find the safe before it falls into the wrong hands. But, the question remains, what is in the safe? What is Patrick Walker desperately trying to hide? Can you imagine reading a mystery thriller that takes you for a ride through the streets of New York City, and leaves you with twists and turns that you didn't see coming? By now, you will realize that you have found that book! Enjoy.

Customer Reviews

I loved the first in the Tom Whiskey series and can't wait to read the next. Good and evil are not always as clear-cut as one might think.

O'Mahoney is a good writer. I enjoyed Whiskey Justice

Not much of a story to keep my attention.

Very good

This was an interesting read, and a mystery with a twist. More of a psychological war between characters. It is a quick read with interesting characters and a different plot. Catchy! Check it out.

I enjoyed this book, but felt I was being "written down to". I felt I was being "written down to." I felt I was being "Written down to." I felt like I was being "written down to."

fast moving, with a twisted end

Sort of unbelievable. I doubt something like this could actually happen. But the truth is often stranger than fiction. Quick read.
