The Pastor's Mail Order Bride: A Sweet Romance

Synopsis

A suspenseful tale of faith and love set in small town America. With heartbreak comes blessings. Pastor Sean and I have an arrangement. I need help and he needs a bride. The question is why? Pastor Sean is confident, handsome and strong. When he delivers a sermon, every eye in the church is fixated on him. He has the charisma and looks of a rock star. So why buy a mail order bride? Our arrangement was supposed to be strictly business, but I soon found myself falling for him. I thought Sean could save me from my past. I soon discovered that what's done in the dark will soon be brought to the light. Most shocking of all was that Pastor Sean was hiding secrets of his own. Could a man like Pastor Sean ever truly love a sinner like me?

Customer Reviews

I love to read mail order bride books, and was surprised this wasn't of olden days. It was a well liked surprise. I will be looking for more of Riley Free's books. Good writing made it easy to read in one night. The characters seem real, faults and all.

I loved this simple sweet love story and would have no problem at all giving it 5 star rating if there wasn't such a glaring need for editing. The nature of most of the misspells suggest maybe spell check was used and guessed wrong all of the time! But my goodness, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John are NOT the first four chapters of the old testament. They are new testament. And that one is a rather bad error. Hence, 4 stars rather than 5. But it is a lovely book even so and I highly recommend it. Characters are well developed, story line is believable, and it has a lot of humor in it as well as a serious story line. Would be well worth the author's time to edit it.

A charming book that I found a great read. I am a Christian, but some of the "Christian Books" leave me feeling like I been preached to by a bad "wannabe preacher". No so by this wonderful author. The story was great and I felt good at the end.

Not at all your typical mail order bride story. She had a job to do and did it well but still her happily ever after was in jeopardy. I couldn't wait to see how it resolved.. beautifully.

I liked this book. It was an easy read and a good story line with a surprising twist at the end!

One of the best stories I have read. So unlike other mail order bride stories. Very refreshing.

It was very good

A bit obvious but enjoyable just the same. Great redemption and restoration of a splintered life. A good Christian read.
