SUN, SAND, And SECRETS: A Ravenwood Cove Cozy Mystery

Synopsis

It's best to keep the past dead and buried...unless forgotten secrets threaten Ravenwood Cove's inhabitants. Amanda loves her old-fashioned beach town, but no one could ever confuse her life as the owner of a historic inn as calm. Not exactly Martha Stewart or a gourmet chef, Amanda's new romance is tangled in friendships, town secrets, and a horrible discovery.

Customer Reviews

Somehow a little bad-tempered opossum got into this mystery. But the humor balances relationships of wife battery, greed and murder just fine, along with a beautiful view of a small town trying to stay alive, small and sound. Great mystery right up to the end with plenty of entertainment in the middle. It sure doesn't hurt that the recipes in the end are to "die" for - pun intended.

Real small town personal life happenings and worries with a missing person mystery is what you get in this book. It's a snapshot of Ravenwood Cove citizens and the concern for their neighbors. An enjoyable relaxing read and if you have been fortunate to be acquainted with the people in the town you become a silent member of the neighborhood.

Another great story, by Carolyn Dean. Hope there will be another story soon. what wonderful stories. I feel like I am part of Greenwood cove. What a wonderful place to live.

Amanda's newly engaged to James, but before she can celebrate, her friend Madeleine goes missing. While she and her fiancé search for her, other events lead the reader down the trail with many twists. It's a fun, fast-paced mystery, looking forward to the next installment of life in Ravenwood Cove.

A nice cozy mystery with an interesting story. Limited violence and a good plot. This series has been an enjoyable read. Looking forward to the next book.

Another fun visit to Ravenwood Cove. It's a story town I'd love to visit, and I hope I don't have to wait too long for the next book.
