Customer Reviews

I loved this book and could not put it down. This book is well written, knowledgeable and informative with an intriguing story. I look forward to future books by this author. Noble Hay, louisiana

Really enjoyed this book. Would recommend and look forward to your next mystery. Your characters were believable and just enough to make the mystery fun to guess who was the culprit.

I really enjoyed the book. I haven't been around a track and horse racing but was able to follow the inside scoop thanks to Dick's writing. It held my attention to the end.

Loved this book. Couldn't put it down. I was pleasantly surprised.Cathy

This book was full of racing information, as well as coordinating it into the weave of the story. The calling of the races was fun to read.

Well written, Held my attention. An ill-appointment of a certain racetrack official causes an untargeted death to occur. More pleaseÃ¢ÂÂÂ|

This is the first book from this author and he does a very nice job. The characters are endearing,from jockeys who ride the glorious animals to the groom's and hotwalkers who work everyday to keep the horses running and feeling their best. A nice murder mystery, with two jockeys being killed in a car explosion,however nothing is as it seems. One man is found to have been beaten and shot in the back of the head. This brings the jockey Hanley's brother,an attorney by trade, to come to the track to find answers. This story reads easily, great descriptions of life on the backside, and interesting plots . I look forward to this author writing another book.

The only thing I felt could have been changed would be a little less fine detail. I felt the writer assumed the reader knew nothing of the subject matter. Otherwise a great story with lots of great characters. I will enjoy reading other books by this author
