The tennis player Novak Djokovic recalled in his book SERVE TO WIN when he was a kid and wanted to play tennis and it wasn't a traditional sport in Serbia for the [tennis courts] to be installed across the street where I spent my summers? Some higher power was surely at work. Anytime that I read stories like that I remember this book WHEN GOD WINKS. It is packed with lot of stories that are beyond chance or luck. It has three parts: Part one: Opening your eyes to see the winks, Part two: Using God winks to enrich your life, and Part three: Coincidences in all walks of life. Squire Rushnell shares anecdotes about him, his friends and people that he interviewed. I love when people share stories like that. The feeling of being protected and guided is such a relief when I am uncertain getting into the unknown that change brings. It spikes the faith that

I am on the right track as I remember my own experiences as well. As I can remember, it changed my perspective since I was a kid about what can be called impossible. When I was 10 years old I was interested in the music group of the moment and to me it was impossible to watch them beyond TV. Possible was to go to my brother's baseball practice on weekends and this one in particular we went to a stadium located inside the only airport nearby. As my brother's friends were telling me to turn around because the group was there I was refusing to do so and look foolish thinking they were lying to me. It was true! They were there! Watching the practice and waiting for their airplane. So anytime that I think something is impossible I always remember that day and what happened.

Has nice, true' stories.....and makes you reflect on what has happened in your own life..how God has been there, but you just didn't realize it...until now.

I truly enjoyed reading this book! There were so many things I could relate to. I had my pen and paper nearby and marked some places where I felt a Godwink occur as I was reading it. As I was reading it, I asked God to send me a sign that what I was "feeling" about a certain situation, that things are happening in the right order and I was doing the right thing in believing in what was placed in my heart and mind. A few minutes later, I read something(s) that were answers to my prayer. Thank you for this and your other very inspirational books. A couple that I ordered at the same time I ordered this one. I am looking forward to reading them.

This book is more anecdotal than theological, but having said that and applying it to coincidences that have happened in my own life I find that I absolutely agree with the author's hypothesis. Indeed, if anyone reading this book puts some real thought into it, and admits to the surprise of coincidence in their own life, they'll find reassurance that God is listening, and having a grand time of it.

I really enjoy this book!! It brings a peacefulness to my life--just amazing!

This is an awesome little book that will lift your spirits and warm your heart. I've experienced God winks a lot and never really gave them much thought just a smile, however you look at them they were meant just for you and should be shared. Coincidence I don't think so, God has a plan for everyone and I think God Winks are for guiding us personally. I would recommend this book to anyone who wants a quick pick me up and enjoyable read! Yes I like it very much and came in a timely manner

Why do things happen? Everyone has different reasons or thoughts, but my personal feeling s that things happen for a reason. For me, a "Wink" is sometimes just a gentle nudge, that reminds me that Someone is watching over me. Sometimes my frustrations are eased when the Wink comes through. I usually have no idea or reason for it, but it's my way of sitting back and allowing my direction to move forward.
