Synopsis

It's irritating every time you rush home from work and find out that you've missed the latest episode of The Walking Dead. Probably you're having a rough time right now fixing your schedule so that you can watch John Snow and Khaleesi in the last season of Game of Thrones. Did you miss an episode of Frank Underwood's campaign to keep the presidency? Cable TV has been the heart of American television. With hundreds of channels to choose from and thousands of shows to enjoy, you can only hope that you can balance watching TV and everything else. Then here comes Internet streaming, a popular platform that can possibly phase out cable TV in the near future. No longer are you burdened with cramped cable TV schedules. Internet streaming lets you choose the shows you want to watch – when you want to. Ask yourself. Which streaming service best suits you? Hulu Plus, Netflix, Sling TV, HBO Now? There is a better option, and it's the best out there. Fire TV – TV the way you want it. Fire TV not only offers Internet streaming, it offers everything else! It has everything from streaming the latest TV shows to watching epic blockbuster hits. And this is only the tip of the iceberg. With Fire TV, you have thousands of apps to choose from. Play thousands of games, read the latest news, browse through hundreds of magazines, even read your favorite comic book without having to leave your TV screen. Entertainment all in one. Customer Reviews

Impressive guide! The Fire TV is all new to me and the basic instructions that are included don't tell you much, so this book was just right. This book is written so that just about anyone can understand it and learn something. Reaching out to all levels is often hard to do, but y'all nailed it. Really worth recommending!
