Sevenfold Sword: Champion

Synopsis

Ridmark Arban is the Shield Knight, the defender of the realm of Andomhaim. The realm is at peace after a long and terrible war, but dark powers threaten other lands. And when a mad elven wizard comes to the High King's court, Ridmark finds himself fighting not only for his own life, but for the lives of his family. For the quest of the Seven Swords has begun...

Customer Reviews

I am so glad that Mr. Moeller is continuing this series. He is picking up the story about eight years from where the last book ended. Once again the protagonists are dealing with people and creatures who have been consumed by evil. Ridmark and Calliande are transported thousands of miles to where those who had fled Andomhaim's imminent destruction many years ago had settled. There are similarities to their homeland but plenty of differences that need to be assimilated. They initially end up in different locations and both encounter adversities whilst trying to locate the other. Their two sons were also transported and almost immediately are snatched by orcs. Ridmark, Calliande and their new allies join forces to free all who have been imprisoned to enhance the necromancer's upcoming spell.

I didn't expect a return to the world of the Frostborn series so soon, but Mr. Moeller writes like a demon is driving him. If only he would find someone that would fix the typos and English mistakes! This is a five star book hampered by non-existent proofreading.

Was bereft when the preceding series came to an end, and then delighted to find that Jonathan was commencing a whole new series with Ridmark Aruban and Calliande. These books are never going to win the Nobel prize for literature, but they are gripping and DEMAND that you turn pages till the end. I am hooked.....again! Love the author, and will be just a little sad until he finishes the next book in the series..

I am very happy that he is continuing the Ridmark and Calliande storyline. Now I am ready for Sevenfold Sword: Swordbearer . I've read his Demon Souled series the Frostborn series and I'm currently reading the Ghosts series, but I find his books about the Frostborn and it's characters my favorite books by this author. He's got talent, I don't regret reading any of his books past and future

Starting a series that builds on previous work has many pitfalls, but this book avoids them elegantly. It has a good mix of previously known main characters and new supporting characters. The progression of the story makes it a joy to read as you are able to follow the characters emotional journey without long breaks in action and movement.

Thought I'd be tired of this world by now. Boy was I wrong! Ridmark and Calliande continue to keep me enthralled! Keep them coming Mr. Moeller.

A new tale begins to unfold for our Frostborn hero and heroine. Rivoting, couldn't wait to pick it back up again and again.

As always the author pens a solid entertaining tale with good pace and plenty of requisite action. I tend to prefer longer reads but he is such a prolific writer that there is hardly any wait time till the next book is available. Mr. Martin please try and emulate him I'd dearly love to finish a song of ice and fire before I die. Or you do like Robert Jordan before you.
