There is so much here - where to start?! The war portions with so much loss of blood and life were difficult. The bit of romance here and there was appealing. Family relationships and the struggles to find one's way to forgiveness and self are always inspiring. The story of the arrival of the gospel of Jesus Christ and it's reception by ancient people who had never heard it brought tears to my eyes. Excellent read, especially history buffs - answered some questions I have had about the Scottish people and their land.

Very entertaining storyline following the history of Scotland and the ties to Great Britain. Based on historical truth with some literary license and some fictional characters this novel is informative and interesting. Definitely want to read book # 2.

Epic tale weaving first settlers into current political strife. Introduction of miracles derails the tale. Explanations and references add grist for further exploration.

Loved the book and was surprised where it took me. It meant a great deal to me the way each part of the story was handled. Can't say enough good things about this book.

I really enjoyed this book very much. If your part Scottish as am I you will enjoy the history. But it is also an outstanding novel. It has everything from intrigue to romance, folklores and true historical facts. I will definitely be following this remarkable author.

Good, interesting read. Also very long.

Compelling story line with insight into Scottish people and the history of the area now called Scotland. I would definitely recommend this book to anyone.

Fascinating history tuned into a fictional story of political intrigue, love and murder...
