Hero Of Thera: A LitRPG Novel

Synopsis

BE A HERO IN THE ULTIMATE GAME Are you a top-rated gamer? Then you might have the skills to play the Game â | where players are sponsored by actual demon lords, gods and goddesses, or Lovecraftian nightmares. Enter Thera, a real kingdom at the crossroads of many other worlds, but with all the augmented-reality interfaces, character progression, and game mechanics that players know and love. And the stakes of The Game? Nothing less than Creationâ "every world in every universe and reality. So â | no pressure. Thus Hector Savage, gamer extraordinaire, comes to Thera. Nothing can prepare him, though, for the schemes of Abyssal Lords, rampaging barbarian ghosts, and a host of nefarious forces who want him deadâ "before he can even make fifth level!

Customer Reviews

I enjoyed this book. Only a couple of rough or under developed passages. The biggest revolves around the main character grappling with sanity. I did not feel the seriousness was adequately conveyed, the main character remained largely unaffected by the turmoil. Lastly, despite leaving out a lot of the particulars of the characters stat pages, I found the authors story full of intrigue that kept me up to speed with how it all got done. Hopefully, the next book will start to explore this world, the battlefield of the gods should bare some new interesting ideas to sink my teeth into and keep the mystery alive.

An excellent book.Spoilers following; It combines several tropes, such as the Faustian deal by the Devil, the evil brother, the impossible quest, the demigod, and the blind seer.Forget all of this though, as this is an excellent book. A very good read with Characters that are likeable and a world that is believable.Go buy it, read it and enjoy it.

There are many litrpg novels that are written by new authors and have all the issues that arise from that. This novel had none of those. Great pacing throughout that never felt rushed but her that action rolling, very well written fight scenes kept me on my toes on how the hero could possibly survive them and of course a perfect amount of loot and character planning goodness. I read it straight through because I couldn't put it down. Anyone that enjoys fantasy novels will love this story and I'm already salivating for the next book in this epic adventure.

Really enjoyed this one. This story doesn't waste a lot of time before the main character gets into action. Couldn't stop reading, the story didn't have any weakness for me. There is plenty of mystery for the reader, the MC is well-developed, and plot twists that leave you wanting more. Definitely waiting for another installment!

Without a doubt one of the best LitRPG books I've read. Never disappoints always moving and never dull my only question is how long do I have to wait for the next book.

I read this book in one sitting and it was a fun ride indeed. I like how it ties back to at least one of Eric's earlier books. It didn't dazzle me like A Game of Universe or Signal to Noise did but if you enjoy fantasy and RPGs you're bound to love this title. I look forward to reading more in this series.

I have read a lot of LitRPG and this one definitely has more soul. Action scenes are great. Story is engaging. Best yet, the twist in both the beginning and end were fantastic. Eric did a great job ending this adventure without a cliffhanger and sets up the next one.Well done Eric.

In all seriousness I really want to read the next book, after finishing this. The anticipation is rather stimulating, such tales are rather wondrous to read over and over. The action was just right as was the dialogue. It gave life to the odd assortment of background characters without leaving them as cardboard cutout's. You could almost seat yourself in his seat and go for the ride.
