No Direction Home: A Post-Apocalyptic Survival Series - Book 1

Synopsis

Ordinary People Surviving Extraordinary Times A college student in Knoxville. An Irish couple on their dream vacation in Orlando. A bank robber in an Atlanta prison...what do they all have in common? They are survivors of vPx073, the most deadly virus ever to be unleashed on the planet. One that has brought civilization to a standstill. Haunted by the tragic death of his Gulf War veteran father, Cody Parsons is a struggling student at UTK when the pandemic hits Knoxville. Soon the sharpshooting skills his father taught him as a fourteen-year-old are put to good use --- especially when an ex-US army combat engineer takes him under his wing. As food and water runs out, and roving gangs take over the cities, the paths of some very determined survivors are destined to meet...with surprising consequences. With strong, original characters that jump off the page, this is a fast-paced story that fans of post-apocalyptic survival fiction will appreciate.

Customer Reviews

A great book. Difficult to put down, but easy to pick up and resume. Looking forward to next book in series. Some useful info too. Not familiar with the southeast, so I'll take authors word on the accuracy and details. Scenarios are very plausible too. Only thing lacking for me is a little more detail...for instance the author mentions heat and disgusting smells of decaying bodies, but nothing of the sweet smells of fresh air and forest. Picking nits, I know, but that really makes a book pop for me. Cheers!!

Familiar plot with good guys, bad guys and ugly guys, but where will loyalties eventually fall. Character creation is glossed over to a certain extent in order to build the plot. And we have yet to see the new world described coherently. But a fast paced plot that is well worth the asking price. I,look forward to book two and have already bought book three

I enjoyed the book, and it set the stage for a good follow up book. I like the events of travelers the best.

I really liked this book. Good characters, good story, that moved along at a fast pace. Looking forward to reading the next one.

I really liked the character development and enjoyed the story line. Looking forward to book two. Wish they were a bit longer.

Well written hard to put down kind of book. Characters have depth. Time to get book 2 for another good read.

This is a good book! It is a quick read with all the requirements of an apocalypse series. Looking forward to reading the remaining books in the series

Better than most. I'll probably read more of the series.
