Customer Reviews

Excellent written addition to the genre. Nice twist of attacks through our electronics. Looking forward to more. Hope its a really long run.

After reading Mike's Final Dawn book set & finding it well done I decided to read Surviving the Fall. I wasn't disappointed when I read the start of this series. I'll be reading the entire series to see how far Rick will be pushed to get across the country to his family. If he makes it home. After reading book one I quickly added the other books in the series to my kindle. Mike Krause has done a excellent job.

Rick Waters is on a business trip a thousand miles away from home when the world changes in the blink of an eye. Determined to get back home to Virginia where his wife and children waited, he gathers supplies and hits the road. Good story so far.

Started off with a bang. It got my interest immediately and I love that. I believe Surviving the Fall is going to be another powerful Post Apocalyptic powerhouse Book by Mike Krause. Looking forward to Book 2 in the series.

Great entertainment and a fun ride. Fast paced and a bit of a twist in the cause of the "Fall". Looking forward to more of the same. Thanks Mike.

I choose 4 star, as only my absolute favorite books get 5 star. And those are full length novels. All in all this was an exceptionally well written story, and I look forward to reading the next.

Although the story was just okay. I read the whole book in just over an hour. I'm surprised that it can be called a book. I will not continue with the other books in this series.

A new and interesting take on yet another act that could lead to an apocalypse! I also like the dual perspectives and the episodic fashion! Looking forward to episode 2!!!
