Charles William Daniel (1871-1955) was a maverick free-thinker whose tiny publishing house had august links with many of the most influential thinkers and movements of the 20th century. To wit, copies of Daniel's books could be found in the library at Ghandi's ashram. This spirit lived on after his death, and the company maintained its niche by publishing definitive texts on a variety of spiritual and esoteric subjects. Many of these titles, notably those on Aromatherapy and Bach Flower remedies, have become standard works on the subject. When the C.W. Daniel list went looking for a new home, the Vermilion and Rider imprints were the natural place for this wonderful collection of authors.

Judy Howard is a registered nurse, midwife and health visitor who has been a member of the Edward Bach Centre team since 1985. She is a Trustee and Custodian of the Bach Centre, running the Centre's educational wing. Her other books include Bach Flower Remedies for Women and Growing Up with the Bach Flower Remedies.

This Bach Flower Remedy guide is very useful and full of information. Adding it to my collection was a GREAT idea! Recommended. Thank you.

Great book for the beginner!

This is a great book for beginners, just as the title indicates. Keep studying, this is a wonderful way to address subtle changes in your constitution.

Nice product

Easy to read. I felt confident using flower essences for self healing and hope to find a way to incorporate flower essences into midwifery and lactation practice. Worthy investment!

Wasn't what I expected. But, I had no trouble with this order.

I use this book on a daily basis. I love it. I would recommend this book to any one interested in natural homeopathic.

I love working with herbs that grow in our prairie. This is a great book for anyone who is looking for a more natural way.
