Customer Reviews

There are few places you can search for stories with deep meaning and great values to teach your kids. I always look for those books that may contain stories that are treasures for parents that want to teach their kids with meaningful words and actions. This is one of those books.

Can't wait to get into these stories. I love stories that can impact your life in a personal way. Lots to learn from authors like Gibran, Og Mandino and now the Rabbi.

Incredible Resource

As always, Rabbi Krohn brings wonderful material to the table.

These stories and anecdotes of one of the great religious speakers of Jerusalem reveal his warm and humorous personality and his great devotion to Torah. An example of a story. A great scholar on his death-bed recites the confessional outloud and realizes he wishes everyone to admire him in this , understands then that in his final act of piety it is his yetzer hara his evil impulse which is most strong. It is paradoxical insights of this kind and not the stories which have obvious and pat conclusions which make this work interesting.

I love this book! I am a big fan of Rabbi Paysach Krohn and his mentor The Grand Rabbi Sholom Schwadron. The stories in this book are awesome! If you are looking to inspire yourself to become a better Jew this is a terrific place to start. Highly recommended. Zev Saftlas, Author of Motivation That Works: How to Get Motivated and Stay Motivated Stories seem to make learning tough lessons easier and allows them to cross generations. I read these aloud to my children and they too have been positively affected by them. The book is a keeper.
