Customer Reviews

Enjoyed another great book by Debra Clopton. Dan and Ashby relationship got off to a bad start. She wouldn't let him get under her skin. He tried every which way to ask her out. But she wouldn't move an inch. Not until he lost his home did Ashby come to the conclusion that she cared for him. But Dan had things to work through as well because of his upbringing. But with Ash's help and also some of the townspeople. He was able to get through it. Their love for each other grew enough for things to proceed. Ashby even helped him with a party to thank everyone. His love for her grew even more. He finally was able to propose to Ashby and all ended well.

Surprise Me, Cowboy is an enhanced edition and is the eighth book in the Texas Matchmakers series. The wives wanted campaign has been good for business, but Ashby has been wanting to find her own happiness. That is why she came to Mule Hollow. But the only man showing interest is the one man that she feels isn't marriage material. Will Ashby ever get her happily ever after? Or will she just have to live with helping others find theirs? I really enjoyed this book. Definitely recommend it!

I really enjoy this author and have started buying a number of her books...the price is good and I try to keep a watch for the cost that lowers from time to time thru ...

Loved this book. A little more serious than the previous books but every bit as delightful, clean, and interesting. I really fell in love with Dan and love the HEA.

Mule Hollow matchmakers strike again! I love these stories. This one had a big side of trusting in God's timing as the theme to Ashby and Dan. Loved it.

Texas Matchmakers Book 8: SURPRISE ME, COWBOY by Debra Clopton was a delightfully entertaining story filled with humor, romance, mystery and adventure.

Such a sweet, clean beautiful romance book. Love this series.

Another great book by Deb Clopton!
