Customer Reviews

It is interesting to know that the concept of Jewish Messiah is far from recent. For hundreds of years Jews have anticipated his (or her, as Mr. Staiman has pointed out) arrival, and many eras have been especially auspicious. This book paints vivid portraits of the various candidates, such as Bar Kochba or the Lubavitcher Rebbe. Folksily written, this book would enlighten many wanting to understand the significance -- and relevancy -- of the Messiah in Jewish thought and history.
