Customer Reviews

I'm reviewing because there are only 15 reviews on this version (as of 12/7/15) and I think its extremely important to mention this collection is in publication order. The table of contents is well organized too (Early works, Fiction, Collabs ect. with drop down menus) That's why I got this one. I already have another .99 cent collection that I got in 2014 but I got this one tonight for the order alone. I think that's very important if you want the Cthulhu stuff to be in order. I know most of these stories aren't connected but there are small references that are easier to understand if read in order. I skimmed the first story in fiction and the formatting is solid. I can't speak for small spelling errors (I think that Digital Papyrus has gone in and fixed some things) nor can I speak for the audio book links because 1. I don't use audio books 2. My Kindle Paperwhite doesn't even have a headphone jack.

This started off beautifully. The imagery was wonderful, the suspense and scene set nicely. However, the unfolding of the tale was not my cup of tea at all. After such sinister and evocative beginnings, the dry tone that followed for much of the rest of the stories had me wanting to take a nap and watch paint dry.

This is a great collection. Ebooks make it so much easier and affordable to read large collections of stories. H. P. Lovecraft is a favorite and while we have actual books of his work, this kindle option makes it much easier to read. The format is great and it works well on the kindle app on our phones, tablets, computers. The stories are great and some are a bit more interesting than others in my opinion but overall really great. This is definitely a book for those that are familiar with H. P. Lovecraft.

As a Lovecraft fan, this book has been a splendid addition to our library - AND contains his complete works, including several titles and letters I had never heard of / read before. What can I say, there is no greater (ahem) occult writer, in my opinion. Adds fuel to my husband's gaming table as well!

Love Lovecraft. Classic existentialist terror of the unknown. If you haven't ever read Lovecraft, then please do. Truly amazing and has affected many artists since the 1920s.

This is everything that H.P. Lovecraft wrote (even stuff from his childhood). If you enjoy his work then this book is perfect. H.P. Lovecraft has influenced all the great current horror writers and you can see why.

Great chronological collection of everything Lovecraft! Recommend to all horror or weird fantasy fans. Totally worth reading any story at any time

You can't beat this for the price and all it includes
