Customer Reviews

I've enjoyed Michael Lutin's astrology opinions since his days at Vanity Fair and have long followed him on his website. Seems for the past 20 years he's been promising something BIG real soon. Instead, he posts less and less and like others have stated, desperately needs a proofreader. I expected an article of book size to be of better quality. It's also very short, for a "real" book price. Just disappointed all around. I'm always expecting more from him, I know what he's capable of, yet he disappoints. I did enjoy his take on the astrology in this booklet.

Written with Lutin's trademark delightful wit, this is almost entertaining. Thus three stars instead of two, for there is very little astrology in it, and it devolves into not much more than a minimally coherent rant in the second half of what is more article than book. Further disappointments: there are no charts reproduced in it, and it appears not to have been proofread at all.

It's true, "don't worry, but don't laugh either." This book helps us to step back and see current turmoil within the context of a larger process. It's scary, yes, but Michael Lutin approaches the topic with his usual good humor and wise astrological perspective.

Michael Lutin is a great astrologer and somehow taps into the universality of the individual. Pluto's transit thru Capricorn - the hits keep coming. Something to think about - how to live with insecurity and let go of the idea that the goal of work, etc, is to ensure a secure, stable life. Pluto will teach us a different lesson.

I love anything Michael Lutin does, he's amazing. Worth the money. He always nails it. Go check out his page, michaellutin.com for his daily horoscopes.

Michael Lutin validates my plan to continue to work towards keeping the right attitude. I had to read this piece twice for it to sink in, it is so profound, so well thought out. Mr Lutin, I can't thank you enough!

Hits the current astrology right on the mark.. very readable... don't need a lot of astrological knowledge to understand his premise.

Dead on, sobering astrology underpins this dead in, sobering forecast. Fasten seat belts, fellow Americans.
