Liberal Theology

Synopsis

The author, a retired nuclear scientist, was an aggressive atheist as a student in Stalinist Poland. Now he is a theist attending a Reform synagogue. Calling himself an "amateur theologian," he continues to learn about religion and make notes for himself. Impressed by "Judaism for Dummies," written in 2001 by Rabbi Ted Falcon and David Blanter, he has put together his collection of informal essays with typical readers of their book in mind.
