Everything you need to know. Includes some miscellaneous prayers such as travelers prayer too. Back of the book shows steps for Tefillin and all other processes. Also includes a useful table similar to multiplication table but for prayer and do/dont's.

Beautiful! Hebrew print is big, and this siddur has everything in it

Great and easy to read

This is a wonderfully put together book if you are looking for a Siddur Tehillat. It has both the Hebrew and English, so if you are a bit rusty, or you are learning Hebrew, it will not keep you lost in the attempt to translate.

Comprehensive in scope, this Siddur is the gold standard of Jewish prayer books for use in Chabad and other orthodox synagogue services. Has the complete liturgy for morning, afternoon, and evening services as well as Friday night and Saturday Shabbat services. Both the Hebrew and English are easy to read. Prayers are annotated with Biblical cross-references. Contains other prayers appropriate for Jewish daily life cycle, including kiddush, blessings on the Torah, kaddish, meals, for the ill, etc. Provides clear illustrations of wrapping tefillin, waving the lulav and etrog, donning a tallit, etc. Handy transliterations are located in the back. I use this Siddur every weekend for Shabbat and wouldn't be without it. Though it may appear too dense for those not involved in more observant practice, it is a wonderful resource and will be a valuable addition to any serious Jewish library.

It's a very good Siddur, clear and easy to read with all the prayers. Very happy with my purchase.

The Siddur is excellent. It has all the prayers for weekdays and Shabbat. High Holidays are included too. I strongly recommend it. The letters are large and it is easy to read.

The Siddur is great, but the description did not specify that it was Ashkenazic transliteration/romanization...so that was really disappointing.
