PEMA CHÖDRÖN is an American Buddhist nun in the lineage of renowned Tibetan meditation master Chögyam Trungpa and resident teacher at Gampo Abbey in Nova Scotia, the first Tibetan monastery in North America established for Westerners. She is the author of many books and audiobooks, including the best-selling When Things Fall Apart and Don't Bite the Hook.

I have been reading Pema's work for decades. I have done the LoJonng practices for many years. This is a wonderful way to remind us of our inner and relationship work and put our practices in the context of the real world - not just private mediation.

Pema Chödrön is a wise and generous teacher. Her "Compassion Cards," teach us interior peacemaking. As we make peace within ourselves, we become active peacemakers in the world.

These days, compassion can be a challenge. When I pick a new card in the morning, it gives me time to reflect and set my intention and awareness for the day. Grateful for the wisdom contained here.

good and helpful for daily use.

I refer to Pema Chodron's dharma wisdom cards as an accompaniment to my daily meditation practice.

Even if you are new to meditation. These cards are fantastic.
